

A report on

'Professional Ethics' – a session for non-teaching staff of RIT Saturday, 28 September 2019

A session titled 'Professional Ethics' was conducted by the IQAC, Rajarambapu Institute of Technology, Sakharale for the non-teaching staff of RIT on 28-September-2019 at CSE conference hall. The session was started by Prof. Mrs. S. P. Patil with welcome note. The resource person of the session Prof. Rajan Padval, Registrar was felicitated by Dr. Satyajit R. Patil, Dean-Quality Assurance. The session was started at 10.30 AM.

Objectives of the workshop:

- To make aware the participants about the attributes of ethics in day to day life and professional career.
- To motivate participants to follow ethics in their professional life in regard to growth of self and organization.

Program details:

Name of the resource person: Prof. Rajan Padval, Registrar, RIT. Organized by: IQAC, RIT

Number of participants: 79

Content in general:

- Ownership, responsibility and role of employees in organizational growth.
- Need of Ethics in personal and professional life.
- Role of ethical behavior for overall development.

The session was concluded with Q&A session followed by vote of thanks by Prof. VRSV Bharath Pulavarthi, member IQAC, RIT.

Feedback analysis:

Feedback was taken from the participants after the session regarding how they are going to use learning in professional life and detailed analysis is presented below.

Total number of participants participated in the feedback: 60

The criteria for the feedback and the analysis are presented in Table 1.

Table 1: Feedback analysis

Criteria satisfaction level	Strongly disagree	Disagree	Neutral	Agree	Strongly agree
The topic is relevant for me	-	-	-	18%	82%
I have understood contents of the topic	-	-	-	7%	93%
I feel, I can implement my learning in my professional life	-	-	-	8%	92%

Comments:

- The content, delivery and case studies related to Neerja, Mumbai were highly motivated.
- It is required to be conducted every year to motivate the employee.

Photographs:

Image 1: Dr. Satyajit R. Patil, Dean-QA felicitating the resource person Prof. Rajan Padval, Registrar, RIT

Image 2: Prof. Rajan Padval, Registrar, RIT delivering session on Professional Ethics

Submitted by:	Endorsed by:
 02/10/19 Dr. Satyajit R. Patil Coordinator, IQAC	 Dr. Mrs. Sushma S. Kulkarni Director, RIT

